Mysteries, Yes

Truly, we live with mysteries too marvelous to be understood.

How grass can be nourishing in the mouths of the lambs.

How rivers and stones are forever in allegiance with gravity while we ourselves dream of rising.

How two hands touch and the bonds will never be broken.

How people come, from delight or the scars of damage, to the comfort of a poem.

Let me keep my distance, always, from those who think they have the answers.

Let me keep company always with those who say "Look!" and laugh in astonishment, and bow their heads.

- Mary Oliver from her collections of poems entitled Evidence

Contemporary Service - 8:45am in Craven Hall
Chinese Service - 10:30am in the Cokesbury Room
Traditional Service - 11:00am in the Sanctuary
